plusform Culture + Language
- Dates: Thursday, 21st February 2019, 09am-05pm and Friday, 22nd February 2019, 09am-05pm as well as Saturday, 23rd February 2019, 09am-05pm
- Course Content: The need for intercultural competence is greater than ever before. People from different countries study and work together and sometimes due to cultural differences we encounter misunderstandings and conflicts. The goal of the seminar is to identify cultural barriers, understand them and use them as a chance for successful cooperation. The format of the seminar is interactive with a combination of theory and hands-on exercises to optimize learning. This seminar is for both German (local) and international students. This diversity offers a great opportunity for a healthy exchange and reflection. International students benefit from receiving tips for a successful stay in Germany and German students can better prepare for a stay abroad. Please note: You don't have to be perfect in English for this seminar, but you should have an interest in other countries and cultures and an open mind.
- Learning Goals: This seminar will help you:
- Become aware of cultural differences and its impact on communication in business and everyday life.
 - Learn about verbal and nonverbal communication styles in different cultures.
 - Identify potential conflicts in intercultural settings.
 - Develop strategies to deal with problems and gain new perspectives.
- Study Performance: Full attendance and active participation, involving in practical exercises and role play, reflecting of practical exercises, presenting of work results, completion of possible tasks between the course days, seminar language is English.
